

Celebrating EU movers

#EU movers

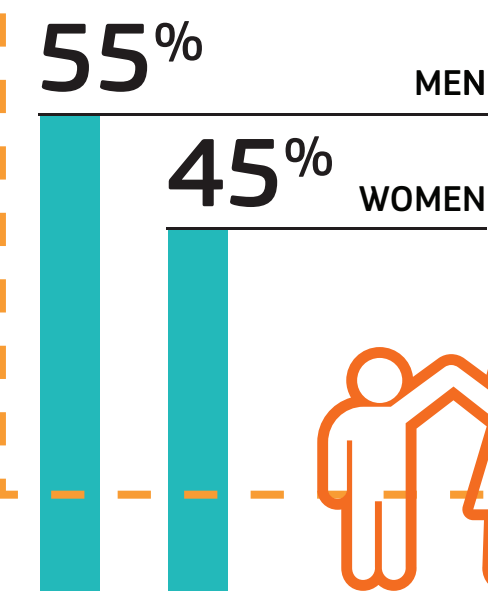

50 years of Free Movement and 60 years of Social Security Coordination

17 million

EU citizens are currently living or working abroad

4% of the EU's working age population lives in another EU country

The EU movers are

Every year,

1 million

will move abroad and 680,000

will return to their home country

1958

Social Security Coordination introduced
Mobile workers enjoy continuous social protection

1968

Freedom of Movement for Workers introduced
EU movers can freely work in another Member State

1993

EURES is born
European network of public employment services supporting free movement

2010

Social Security Coordination modernised
Access to information and rights improved

2016

EURES reformed
More jobs and CVs online and a bigger network

2017

Social Security Coordination goes digital
Quicker, more secure exchange of social security information

2018

The anniversary

Fairer rules for posted workers
Equal pay for equal work in the same workplace

2019

European Labour Authority
Improved cooperation between Member States on labour mobility

1 Free movement:

Helps fill labour shortages

Contributes to growth and innovation

Builds on effective rules ensuring fair labour mobility

2 Movers' Social Security Benefits are protected, including:

- Healthcare
- Pensions
- Unemployment benefits
- Family benefits

3

European Health Insurance Card

that gives travellers access to necessary healthcare in all EU countries, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Switzerland.

Around 238 million citizens hold a

